The African Health Monitor is a magazine of the World Health Organization Regional Office for Africa (WHO-AFRO) published four times a year (January, April, July and October). It is a multilingual publication with peer-reviewed articles in English, French and Portuguese.

The aim of the African Health Monitor is to promote and facilitate evidence-based policy and decisions to strengthening programmes for health promotion, protection, and restoration in the African Region. In order to achieve its aim, the Monitor serves as a medium for publication of articles that monitor the health situation and trends, and track progress toward the health-related Millennium Development Goals and other internationally agreed-upon goals. It will publish and disseminate relevant and scientifically rigorous public health information. It will also disseminate information on public health interventions carried out in the Member States with the cooperation of AFRO technical programmes.

Prospective authors should follow the Monitor stylesheet, which can be obtained by sending an email message to the Editorial Office at AHM@afro.who.int or by using this intranet link <http://intranet.afro.who.int/guidelines/ahm.pdf>
